Thwing, Charles F (President, Western Reserve University; Secretary, Carnegie Foundation) 1917-1918 (017)

Thwing, Charles F. President, Western Reserve University; Secretary, Carnegie Foundation 1917-1918 (017)

472

December 1st., 1917

President C. F. Thwing,

Secretary of the Carnegie Foundation,

576 Fifth Avenue, New York.

My dear President Thwing:

I have to acknowledge with many thanks your letter announcing that at the meeting of the Trustees of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching I was elected a member of the Board. I accept this high honour with much diffidence, but I shall endeavour to give to the new duties that it may involve all the attention that the position will require of me.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

President's Room
Western Reserve University
Adelbert College
Cleveland

6 December 1917

My dear Sir Robert:

In giving the official announcement of your election to the Carnegie Foundation, I purposely refrained from expressing my own deep personal satisfaction in your election. I for one, as I am sure also every other of our more than a score members, rejoice as an individual in your coming into this great service. You will make the opportunity richer for each of us.

Believe me

Ever yours,

Charles F. Thwing

Sir Robert A. Falconer.

December 18th, 1917

My dear President Thwing:

Many thanks for your letter enclosing the answer from Mr. Carnegie.

Will you allow me at the same time to say I greatly appreciated your former letter that came shortly after your official announcement of my election as Trustee of the Carnegie Foundation? I look forward with much pleasure to association with the gentlemen who are on the Board, and yourself not least among the number.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

President C. F. Thwing,

Western Reserve University.

458

January 7th, 1918

President Charles F. Thwing,

Western Reserve University,

Cleveland, Ohio.

My dear President Thwing:

I am sorry that it will be impossible for me to attend the annual meeting of the Religious Education Association at Atlantic City in the first week of the coming March but I am to deliver the address on University Day in the University of Pennsylvania on February 22nd and I cannot leave home so soon afterwards, particularly as I find that owing mainly to the war the business of my office has become very heavy. I hope that you are finding that the strain is not too heavy upon you. The splendid preparations that the United States are making have given new heart to the Allies and surely we will be able before long to secure our victory and a satisfactory peace.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

443

THE CARNEGIE FOUNDATION
FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF TEACHING
576 FIFTH AVENUE
NEW YORK

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

March 7, 1918

Dear Sir Robert:-

I have the honor to inform you that in accordance with the By-Laws of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a special meeting of the Trustees will be held at the offices of the Foundation, 576 Fifth Avenue, New York City, at 10 A. M. on Monday, April 22, 1918.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary of the Board.

Sir Robert Falconer,
President, Toronto University,
Toronto, Canada.

March 8th, 1918

President C. F. Thwing,
Secretary, Board of Trustees,
Carnegie Foundation,
576 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Dear Sir:

I am directed by Sir Robert Falconer to acknowledge the receipt of your notice of the meeting of the Trustees on Monday, April 22nd, and to say that Sir Robert hopes to be present.

Yours very truly,

President's Secretary.